

RESEARCH MATTERS.

How your research matters, too.

STUDENT RESOURCES

It's important that today's researchers access complete, credible, and up-to-date content. From student favorites like Gale's In Context suite to their flagship InfoTrac databases, the Gale Virtual Reference Library offer dozens of powerful research platforms to put vetted sources right at your users' fingertips.

The InfoTrac Newsstand offers researchers:

- ✓ An index of 1,800+ national and international newspapers
- ✓ More than 33.5 million full-text articles from more than 1,100 newspapers, including: The New York Times, The Times (London), USA Today, Christian Science Monitor, and the Arizona Republic
- ✓ Ability to search by specific newspaper section to deliver more precise results
- ✓ Comprehensive coverage of current events, including national, global, and regional perspectives, as well as first-hand accounts of historical events.

PowerSearch provides a sophisticated yet simple solution for manage a wealth of periodical, reference, multimedia and primary source information. It provides single-search access to almost all of the library's Gale content. It also helps researchers save time through a streamlined common user interface that can be customized to match skill levels and habits.

General OneFile is Gale's largest general-interest periodical resource and provides periodical and news information through an intuitive, user-friendly search interface for researchers at all levels. Content includes more than 12,000 titles with nearly 30 years of coverage.

Academic OneFile is the premiere resource for peer-reviewed, full-text scholarly journals and reference sources. Designed for research libraries, graduate schools, universities and community colleges, this database is home to nearly 13,000 indexed journals which cover a wide variety of subjects, including the physical sciences, technology, medicine, social sciences, the arts, theology and literature.

Access Gale's Virtual Reference Library Databases from the Copper Queen Library's homepage at copperqueenlibrary.com by clicking on the RESEARCH DATABASES icon, and then the Gale Database icon you'd like to explore on the Cochise County Library's database page.

GALE IN CONTEXT

Each subject-specific resource in Gale's In Context suite uses eye-catching topic overview pages to bring together nonfiction materials in all digital formats. Users can read or watch to get the facts with articles, videos, charts, images and infographics, and more.

Virtually every course of study – from history to science to literature – is ultimately tied to the study of people. Biography in Context delivers outstanding research support with 600,000+ biographical entries on more than 528,000 individuals, spanning history and geography.

Issues and countries form the core of this dynamic database, which uses a wealth of resources to explain the historical and contemporary conditions necessary to understand global issues, conflicts and events.

This database is the premier online resource for today's hottest social issues -- from Offshore Drilling to Climate Change, Healthcare to Immigration. It helps students research, analyze and organize a broad variety a data for conducting research and completing writing assignments.

Supporting high school curricula and university coursework, this database features authoritative information for assignments and projects and provides detailed coverage of popular subjects including: earth science, life science, space, technology, mathematics and science history and biography.

This database delivers comprehensive, media-rich search results from an extensive online collection of historical information.

This database is a comprehensive online collection that uses an intuitive interface to provide multicultural, global and research-based dynamic content that supports today's history research requirements.

This next-generation portal reaches out to today's learners with a web-like user experience. From the eye-catching, media-rich homepage to the fast navigating search options, this databases helps students develop both research and critical-thinking skills while covering a student-focused subject matter.