

Among Friends

Autumn/Winter 2018

Art Found a Home

October 27th was a very special evening when friends and library lovers gathered at Central School Project for Art Should Have a Home, the auction of beautiful charcoal works by beloved artist and community member Laurie Kintzele.

An astounding $5300 was donated to The Friends of the Library by the end of the evening.

The Friends of the Library extends its deepest appreciation to Boyd Nicholl for his generosity in donating the artwork of his late wife to benefit the Library. Laurie gave many art workshops at the Library over the years and, as recently as last winter, Laurie and Boyd were the featured artists in the Pritchard Gallery.

MEET MIKE NORMAND

We first met Mike a couple of years ago when, as a newcomer to town, he attended our Chocolate Tasting and passed along some very helpful ideas that he thought might improve the event's traffic flow.

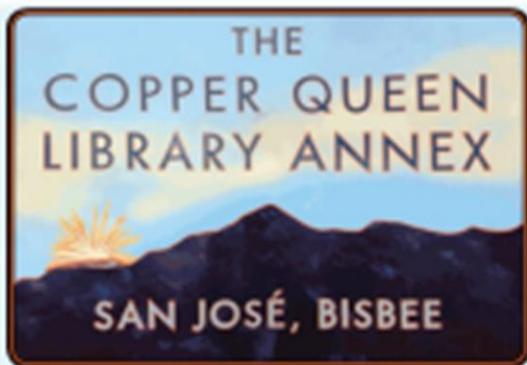

Mike became attracted to Bisbee because of its fun events, its character, its history and its supportive atmosphere.

Mike joined the Friends' Board in the Spring because he supports literacy and access to information.

In his free time, he enjoys restoring homes. Over the last four years, he restored his 100-year-old home in Warren and is now working on another.
